Share Who You Are
If you have an idea that you feel like will benefit you and also raise awareness about Raleigh’s great start-up scene, then email your post idea to hello@triangledelivers.com.

Raleigh Messaging
When you’re highlighting your business, you might want to talk about your hometown too. Here are some ideas we hope you’ll take to heart.

Raleigh is a city built by thinkers and doers looking to make a difference. A community with big city hustle without the hassle. A home that is welcoming and open. A culture that is kind and a life that is just easier. We’re Raleigh. Where the East Coast is made easy.

Connecting With Other Entrepreneurs
There are several co-working spaces and accelerators in the area. Not only are they a great place to work, but they also have networking opportunities and frequently conduct small business seminars.
